

ASSIGNMENTS

Assignments

Individual personnel, with the BaronNet backing, may be assigned to undertake;

- Tasks or defined activities within developments or within development teams
- Study / Project management or team leadership
- Troubleshooting or operational / safety support work

Whichever of the above categories is undertaken, in principle the BaronNet assignee will remain responsible for his assigned task / work with agreed deliverables and schedule. Assignments of a “body-shop” nature will not be accepted.

Assigned Individual backed by the linked / networked Team

Any task or assignment is the focus of the BaronNet Team – using the Virtual Office the support of the whole Team is on-call for any one individual – wherever in the world he / she may be employed.

Virtual Expert Network

The Team forms a virtual expert network, whilst an activity or assignment may be executed by one team member, he / she may call upon the whole team via the network – as one – for support, information and input.

Worldwide Experience

BaronNet personnel have experience of work all over the globe, are seasoned international travelers and flexible in outlook. Experience covers all aspects from HQ to field office to on-site.
